I currently own about a quarter mile of river frontage above Mr. Spinney's property. I could thank Mr. Spinney for his blueprint on how to get a launching ramp and float on the river. He has shown all it takes is a lot of money and a lot of time. Although I will not pursue a dock and a float as Mr. Spinney has shown it is possible, others may choose this route.

I feel at the very least, Mr. Spinney should be paying a penalty of the money spent by the town for the ruling in the town's favor. What I would be most favorable is the town legal fees returned and the float and ramp access removed. This I feel would discourage others from following Mr. Spinney's example.

Thank you.

Albert Monaco
