Addressing the Select Board

Any member of the public may speak once on any item under discussion by the Select Board after "being recognized." Generally, the agenda item will be introduced, followed by questions and discussion among board members, parties directly involved, or their representatives. Next, interested members of the public may speak. (Public comment may, at board discretion, be limited to three minutes per person.) Additional comments by board members or directly involved parties or their representatives may follow. At the close of testimony, the matter will return to the Board for discussion and action.
