Description of the Business

This is an online apparel sales business. The business buys new shoes and clothes from sources around the country who ship them to the business using UPS. The business processes the items and offers them for sale through an online auction site. Once the items are sold, the business packages them and ships them using the USPS Newcastle Post Office. The business owns its own truck and processes, sells, and delivers to the Newcastle Post Office approximately two trucks full of merchandise per day, five days per week, year round.

The business currently has two employees in addition to the owners and may hire a couple more. All parking for the truck and the employees will be on the business property, including a possibly reconfigured driveway. There will be no parking on Golden Ridge Road.

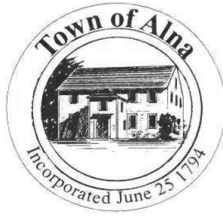

There will be no sign.
